Dear Andrea:

Thank you and congratulations to your Chapter for participating in the 7th Annual ALA Community Challenge Weekend (CCW). I'm pleased to report that a record 82 out of 100 ALA chapters participated in CCW for 2005. That's an incredible accomplishment!

While 2005 will be remembered by many as a year marked by the horrible devastation caused by the hurricane-related catastrophes, it will also be remembered as a year in which the power and determination of the human spirit was brought to the forefront. Those affected by these natural disasters will be forever grateful for the compassion and kindness exhibited by the thousands of volunteers and the generosity from those who donated money and other items toward the relief efforts.

No matter what project your chapter conducted, YOU have made a difference in the lives of those in your community! I am proud of your commitment and devotion to such a worthy event such as CCW.

Again, thank you and we look forward to your Chapter's participation in this year's Community Challenge Weekend, October 20-22, 2006.
